Music and Lyrics by Gerard Alessandrini

CHORUS

My heart is melt - ing for MY MELT - ING POT GIRL, for MY MELT - ING POT

GIRL is like an A - mer - i-can Hy - brid Rose. My heart is dream - ing of MY MELT - ING POT GIRL, teeth of Jap - a-nese pearl, twink - 'ling un - der her perk - y Pol - ish nose. Her eyes are Ir-ish, her hair I - tal-ian, her bos - om Ger - man and full. Her lips are Lat - in from Ar - gen - ti - na and her feet dance like a Rus - sian Bal - le - ri - na. My heart is

ach - ing to be melt - ed with hers, when MY MELT - ING POT

GIRL falls in - to my arms a - lone, and we make a melt - ing pot fam - 'ly of our own!

Her Great Great Great

Grand-ma came from Par - is, France. They say she was the daugh-ter of Ma - rie An - toi - nette. Her Great Great

Grand - pa fished in Por - tu - gal and he caught a pret - ty Brit - ish fish in his fish - ing net. Their son mar - ried a U - kran - i - an, but not a ve - ry brain - y one, So he de - sert - ed her be - fore they ma - ted. He head - ed west to Om - a - ha and met a pret - ty In - jun squaw. Like prai - rie rab - bits how they pro - cre - a - ted. The eld - est girl was fair - ly fair and passed for White His - pan - ic. She mar - ried a Wis - con - sin blonde, Most cer - tain - ly Ger - man - ic. Her fath - er was a Hin - du - Jew from Nort - hern Mon - tre - al,, and with her moth - er made the fair - est flow - er of them all. My heart is melt - ing for MY MELT - ING POT GIRL, and the sum of her parts cre - ate a mi - rac - u - lous tas - ty whole. I'm pre - ju -
